CAGE

Purchase of typewriter

Mr. Shaw reported the purchase of a type-writing machine as in proposals, and a discussion of the merits of the various machines followed, Mr. Shaw reading letters from various libraries bearing on the matter.

Voted That Mr. Donnelly be made a committee to renew expiring subscriptions to periodicals in the Cochituate Branch.

Voted That the matter of closing the Cochituate Branch every evening except Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, in the summer, be left to the discretion of the house committee.

Voted That 200 volumes, one half of which may be fiction, be sent to the Cochituate Reading Room, to be taken out thereon cards the same as from the main Library, said books to be returned from reading room
